Every employee is bound to become a member of the Contributory Provident Fund according to the Provident Fund Rules of the Government of India and its amendments as far as Colleges may be concerned.

Certificate and Salary-Slips

Salary-slips if requested and required will be issued each month showing all allowances and deductions. Any clarification on the salary-slip must be sought within the following month. Claims made later than one month will not be entertained. If required, the College will issue certificates showing the nature of the employment and the actual salary received by the employee.

Leave

General

- ❖ Leave means, authorized absence from work, Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right.
- ❖ Leave is to be sanctioned according to the exigencies of the proper and regular running of the College. Leave application is required.
- ❖ The Governing Body of the Institution is the competent authority to sanction any leave other than casual leave.
- ❖ For the purpose of leave the year will be the academic year.
- ❖ Taking leave without sanction, and extending leave without sanction, are considered acts of misconduct and result in deduction in salary.
- ❖ While the leave rules are primarily applicable to the permanent employees, they apply to the other employees in proportion, unless specified in the letter of appointment.

Casual Leave

- ❖ All employees are entitled to 12 days of casual leave.
- ❖ Casual leave may be affixed or prefixed to any holiday or Sunday but the total period including the holiday or Sunday shall not exceed 7 days at a time. Casual leave shall not be affixed or prefixed to any long vacation.
- ❖ Temporary employees as well as those employed during the year will get casual leave in proportion to their period of service provided this is not less than 3 months.

Medical Leave

- ❖ Seven days of medical leave is permitted to all permanent employees during the course of the year. This cannot be accumulated for the next year.

Maternity Leave

- ❖ Female employees are entitled to maternity leave for three months with half salary

- ❖ In calculating the three months, calendar months are taken into account and all holidays occurring in those months are included as leave.
- ❖ Notice of maternity leave should be given at least one month prior to the leave.
- ❖ Maternity Leave is to be taken at least two weeks prior to confinement.

Annual Leave

- ❖ Non-teaching staff may take the annual leave of two weeks together or in two broken periods, but only within the period of College holidays. Those who have not completed eleven months service at the time of the College holidays may be given proportionate leave.
- ❖ Annual leave is to be sanctioned after taking into account the essential services in the College.

Public Holidays

- ❖ Generally all College holidays are holidays for the teaching staff while not so for non-academic staff. They could, however, be asked to attend special classes for students, updating courses, in-service training or other College related activities.
- ❖ The non-academic staff will follow a list of holidays published annually by the College.
- ❖ Due to the nature of their work for those who cannot avail of the full day a week and other public holidays other compensatory arrangements may be made.

Special Leave

- ❖ Special leave without pay for advanced study or foreign travel or other purposes can be permitted by the Management Council to permanent employees who have completed 10 years of service in the College.
- ❖ The maximum period of this special leave is one year and is permitted only once during the service in College.
- ❖ This special leave must be applied at least three months in advance and must be approved by the Management Council. The special leave will not be considered for pay increment on return to service.

General Rules Concerning Leaves

(For Academic and non-academic staff members)

- ❖ A register for leave account of every employee shall be maintained in the College office.
- ❖ Any leave that has been properly applied for and granted by the lawful authority will not cause a break in the service of the concerned staff member.
- ❖ A staff member on special leave shall not be entitled to increment if such falls due at the time when he/she is enjoying the special leave.
- ❖ Utmost ten days of On-Duty leave is provided for a permanent employee per year for services such as University Examination Evaluation, etc.

Superannuation / Termination of Service

1. The retiring age for all employees is 58 years. However, if the College requests the service of an individual it can be extended on an annual basis with a consolidated pay.
2. A permanent employee may resign from the service of the College with three months' prior notice, or the Governing Body may terminate the service of a permanent employee by giving three months' prior notice or three months' salary in lieu of notice. Here salary shall mean only the basic pay.
3. A temporary or probationary employee may resign or his/her services may be terminated by giving one month's prior notice or one month's salary in lieu of notice without assigning any reason whatsoever.
4. An employee convicted by a court-of-law on a criminal charge will be terminated without notice or salary in lieu of notice. An employee against whom a criminal case is registered will not be allowed to continue in the service of the College till acquitted. If acquitted the period will be considered part of service, but no salary will be paid for the period, unless the case was registered by the College itself.
5. An employee may be deemed to have terminated his/her services with the College by way of voluntary abandonment of service if he/she without any intimation /or without any sanction from the College Competent authority, does not report for duty at his/her place of work for a period of fifteen (15) continuous calendar days. In the event of such voluntary abandonment of services by an employee, the College shall be at liberty to take such action as it may deem necessary for breach of the conditions of service against such an employee.
6. On resignation or termination, all dues to the employees, after any recovery to be made by the College, will be cleared within seven days after the resignation or termination becomes effective. This, however, does not apply to the Provident Fund, which are to be realized when these amounts are disbursed by the competent authority.
7. On leaving the service of the College, one is entitled to a certificate of service as well as a certificate of release from duty.
8. Return of College Property: Before leaving the service of the College an employee shall return to the College in good order and condition all property or equipment including documents, papers, and files belonging to the College or relating to its business. The cost of any equipment or property not safely returned shall be deductible from the employee's salary or other amounts due to him on any account or shall be recoverable otherwise, and the employee shall be responsible for all cost and consequences thereof. If any employee is in occupation of any residential premises, whether College owned or leased, immediately on termination of his employment with the College, the employee shall hand over to the College the vacant possession of the premises. If not it may be recovered by any process of eviction considered appropriate in the circumstances by the management.

Misconduct

1. General

- ❖ Misconduct is a willful action or omission on the part of an employee which goes against the objectives and interests or requirements of the College community.
- ❖ These acts or omissions could be summed up under the following list which is illustrative and not exhaustive.
 1. Neglect of duty by way of sleeping on duty, or lax behavior and attitude to time.
 2. Want of diligence in the performance of duty, or violation of the orders of the lawful authority.

 13. Inflicting corporal punishment on students.
 14. Any other act or omission that in general understanding would be detrimental to the objectives of the College.
 15. Smoking within the premises of the establishment or just prior to resumption of duty.

The College has the right to impose penalties or call for disciplinary action after assessing the gravity of misconduct.

2. Penalties

- Minor penalties include
 - Censure
 - Recovery of damage or loss incurred by the College from the individual
 - Suspension from duty without pay for a period not exceeding seven days.

Major penalties consist of

- Withholding of increment
- Compulsory termination of service
- Dismissal.

- The application of the above penalties shall be decided by the competent authority.

3. Disciplinary Authorities

- ❖ The Secretary, on behalf of the Governing Body, shall be the Disciplinary Authority in respect of all acts of misconduct which warrant only minor penalties as defined above. He shall refer all actions proposed to be taken to the Governing Body, and the Governing Body shall advise the Secretary as to the action to be taken against the delinquent staff member.
- ❖ The Governing Body shall be the Disciplinary Authority in respect of all cases of misconduct, which warrant imposition of a major penalty as defined above. The Governing Body shall act as the Grievance Redressal Cell in ordinary and extra ordinary matters concerning the staff. The Grievance Redressal Cell consists of senior lay staff, senior religious staff and an appellate of the parent body.
- ❖ The Parent Body shall be the Appellate Tribunal in respect of all cases where a minor or major penalty is sought to be imposed against a member of the staff. The Parent Body shall have the power to reconsider all the evidence produced in the case, admit fresh evidence, if necessary, hear the parties concerned and confirm, modify or set aside any decision of the Governing Body In regard to minor penalties Governing Body's decision shall be final
- ❖ There shall be a Final Appellate Tribunal with penalty powers to go into all aspects of any case where a major penalty or penalties, as specified above, is or are sought to be imposed.

The Final Appellate Tribunal shall consist of:

- a. One representative of the Governing Body.
- b. One representative of the aggrieved staff member.
- c. One person not connected with either of the two above mentioned categories, to be appointed by the Parent Body, preferably a person having discharged magisterial or judicial functions or who has been engaged in Civil Service, who will also act as Chairman of the Final Appellate Tribunal. The decision of the Final Appellate Tribunal will be taken on a majority vote and shall be final in regard to the imposition of major penalties.

4. Procedure for Imposing Minor Penalties

No order imposing any of the minor penalties specified above shall be imposed except after:

- ❖ The staff member has been informed in writing by the Secretary of the College of the action proposed to be taken against him/her. The letter to be sent by the Secretary of the College will be accompanied by allegations on the basis of which action is proposed to be taken. The concerned staff member will have to make his/her representation to the Secretary of the College against the action proposed to be taken, within one week from the date of receipt of the notice from the Secretary of the College and he/she shall also intimate as to whether he/she wishes to be personally heard in respect of the allegations against him/her.

- ❖ The Secretary has considered the representation, if any, of the concerned member of the staff, and has granted him/her a hearing, if so desired.
- ❖ The Secretary has submitted a report to the Governing Body.
 - a. The Governing Body shall consider the report submitted by the Secretary in connection with the case, and shall advise him concerning the penalty proposed to be imposed on the concerned member of the staff.
 - b. The Secretary shall proceed to impose such penalty as he may be advised to do by the Governing Body. The staff member thus penalized, however, is free to appeal to the Parent Body as provided earlier.

5. Procedure for Imposing Major Penalties

1. No order imposing on an employee any of the major penalties specified here shall be made except after holding an enquiry in the manner hereby prescribed.
2. The Secretary shall submit a report to the Governing Body in case of serious misconduct by a member of the staff/employee which may warrant the imposition of a major penalty or penalties, specified above. On consideration of the said report, the Governing Body may direct the Secretary to issue a charge-sheet to the concerned member of the staff/employee. In such case, the Governing Body shall appoint an Enquiry Officer to conduct the enquiry against the delinquent.
3. The staff / employee shall be supplied with a copy of the charge-sheet or/and charges together with a statement of the allegation on which they are based.
4. He/she will be required to submit to the Secretary of the Governing Body within seven days of the receipt of the charges and allegations, a written statement in his/her defense and also state whether he/she desires to be heard in person.
5. The Enquiry Officer will conduct the Enquiry considering the charge-sheet and written statement of the staff/employee, if any, and giving him/her a hearing, if so desired.
6. The Enquiry Officer will prepare a Report on the Enquiry with his/her findings on each of the charges together with the reasons and he/she will send the Report to the Secretary of the Governing Body.
7. The Governing Body will be at liberty to either accept or reject the Report and may order a fresh Enquiry on either the full or partial aspect of the charges.
8. The Governing Body will take steps as are considered fit and proper on the basis of the findings of the Enquiry Officer. If a penalty is to be imposed, the staff /employee may be called upon by the Governing Body to show cause within 10 days concerning the quantum of the penalty.
9. On receiving the cause shown, if any, or after 10 days from the second show cause notice served to the concerned staff/employee, the Governing Body will proceed to impose such penalties, as it thinks fit. The staff/employee thus penalized may, however, prefer an appeal against such order of penalty in the manner provided below.

6. Appeal

Appellate Tribunal - Parent Body

- a. A Staff/employee against whom an order proposing to impose any of the penalties referred to above has been passed may prefer an appeal to the Parent Body within 15 days of the date of the receipt of such order. During the period of 15 days, the penalty proposed to be imposed shall be kept in abeyance, and if an appeal is preferred, the penalty proposed to be imposed shall remain in abeyance till the disposal of the appeal.
- b. After hearing the staff/employee and the Governing Body, the Parent Body shall pass such order as it thinks fit. In the case of the imposition of minor penalties referred to herein, the decision of the Parent Body shall be final.

Final Appellate Tribunal

- a. If by reason of any decision of the Parent Body, acting as Appellate Tribunal, a staff member is subjected to any of the major penalties specified herein, he/she shall have the right to prefer a further appeal to the Final Appellate Tribunal.
- b. Any such appeal must be filed with the Final Appellate Tribunal, through the Secretary of the College within 15 days of the date on which a copy of the order of the appellate Tribunal is communicated to the member. During the period of 15 days, the penalty proposed to be imposed shall be kept in abeyance, and if any appeal is preferred, the penalty proposed to be imposed shall remain in abeyance till the disposal of the appeal.
- c. The Final Appellate Tribunal may on application made in this regard, call for the records of the case from the Parent Body, the Governing Body, the Secretary of the College and shall also afford an opportunity of hearing to the concerned staff /employee.
- d. After considering all aspects of the case, including the submission made by the concerned staff member, the Final Appellate Tribunal shall pass such orders as it thinks fit and its decision shall be final.

7. Bar on Representation by Legal Practitioners

- ❖ No legal practitioner shall be allowed to represent either a staff /employee or the Governing Body of the College in the disciplinary and appellate proceedings as described above.

8. Suspension

- ❖ The Secretary of the College may, in cases involving gross misconduct, indiscipline or negligence of duties, place a staff/employee under suspension pending further action by the Governing Body which must confirm or annul the action taken by the Secretary within 15 days.

- ❖ The Secretary of the College, on the instruction of the Governing Body shall place a staff/employee of the College under suspension in the following cases:
 - a. Where an Enquiry against him/her is contemplated or where such as an Enquiry is pending.
 - b. Or, where a case against him/her in respect of any criminal offence involving moral turpitude is under investigation or on trial.
 - c. Such suspension as provided here shall not be construed as a penalty as indicated elsewhere in this document.
- ❖ Every order of suspension shall be reported, for information only to the competent Government/University authority.
- ❖ A staff/employee placed under suspension shall be entitled to receive from the College a monthly subsistence allowance.
 - a. During the first two months of the period of suspension at the rate of fifty percent of his/her total emoluments.
 - b. If there is a delay on the part of Governing Body beyond two months in arriving at a decision, the subsistence allowance will continue to be paid at the rate of seventy five percent of his/her total emoluments until the Governing Body of the Institute communicates its decision to the staff/employee concerned.
 - c. If the member takes up any other paid employment during the period of suspension, he/she shall not be entitled to any subsistence allowance for the period he/she is thus otherwise employed.
 - d. If the staff/employee is exonerated from all charges, all arrears of pay and allowances will be paid to him/her for the total period of suspension, after adjustment of the subsistence allowance paid.

9. Grievances

- ❖ A grievance is a genuine complaint an employee may have against the college with regard to the work or benefits due to him/her.
- ❖ A grievance is to be presented in writing to the Principal who may take the appropriate action or forward it to the Governing Body who will recommend the action to be taken.
- ❖ If the action proposed or taken is not satisfactory to the aggrieved employee an appeal may be made by him/her to the Parent Body.

Conclusion

This Personnel Policy is approved by the Parent Body which reserves to itself the right to amend, add to it or delete any clause included in it. From time to time (particularly before the beginning of a scholastic year), the Governing Body will discuss the working of this policy and recommend modifications to the Parent Body. Ordinarily the Rector, Secretary and the Principal are the interpreters of this policy. They may, if necessary, suspend the operation of any particular clause, but must give a written explanation to the Governing Body for their action. Their order will become operative unless the Governing Body overrules it. A copy of this policy is always available in College Office for reference by an employee.
