INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS CELL

Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) indicates the specific legal rights of the inventors to hold and exercise Patents, Trademarks, Copyrights, Industrial Designs, etc.

IPR cell was constituted at Sacred Heart College in the year 2016 with the objective to create an ambience to nurture new ideas through which innovations and research emerge. It is focused to encourage and preserve the innovative ideas of the faculty and students and stimulate collective growth towards research and development.

The function of the IPR cell includes,

1. To encourage and protect new inventions, designs, software, brand name and other innovative ideas etc. generated through the college.
2. To arrange seminars and workshops to educate the faculty and students about IPR.
3. To entrust the original ideas of inventions and research by Plagiarism check.
