Agenda:

- To review the existing Course Structure and Syllabi of BA Economics and Allied Economics for B.Com (Commerce) for the academic year 2020-21.

Discussion:

The Board members suggested the following changes to be considered and incorporated during the next revision of syllabus. The suggestions given by the board members are summed up and are given below:

1. The sequence and new subjects in the course structure of the UG Economics has been suggested for change. Such as in the Third year papers like Marketing Management, Elements of Research and Statistics, Development Economics, Contemporary Economics could be added.
2. In the third year paper on Basic Computer Applications board suggested to revise the entire content of the syllabus and new concepts to be added.
3. Clear cut objectives, outcomes and pedagogy of the subject(s) should be given properly.
4. In some of the subjects the subject titles to be changed and contents to be updated.
5. Text Book(s) and references should be updated and latest editions to be given.
6. Typographical errors need to be corrected.
7. Self study papers need to be given more choices according to the preference of the students.
8. Individual mentoring for every student is needed, for that every staff member need to cooperate and follow them.
9. The boards also suggested to avoid some of the Publishers since the quality of the books of these publications are not of high standards.
10. The board recommended to visit some of the leading Universities syllabus for better understanding and updating of the syllabus.
11. Allot subjects to all the staff members and give them proper instructions while framing the syllabus for the next revision.

Resolution:

- It was resolved to follow the existing Course Structure, Evaluation pattern and Syllabi of BA Economics and Allied Economics for B.Com (Commerce) till the next revision is made.
