Dr. A. GEORGE LOUIS RAJA
Asst. Prof & Head,
PG & Research Dept. of Computer Applications,
Sacred Heart College (Autonomous),
Tirupattur-635 601. Tirupattur (Dt.)

- He also elaborated on the need for OBE syllabi and the efforts made by the department towards the preparation of the OBE curriculum. He also presented a tentative structure of courses based on OBE to the board members, and he invited the members to give their suggestions through e-mail.

ii. Inclusion of two new courses PG Diploma in Data Science instead of mathematics papers.

- Dr. George Louis Raja opened the discussion on the proposal of two new courses instead of the following mathematics papers in PG Diploma in Data Science.
 - i. CADD101 - Optimization Techniques
 - ii. CADD104 - Applied Probability and Statistics
- He pointed out the justification behind this change of courses; the incumbents of the diploma will be from any B.Sc.,/B.A./ B.Com, programmes. These students would have already studied any Mathematics/ Allied Mathematics or Equivalent course in UG or Mathematics / Equivalent course in their +2. This is sufficient for them to pursue the PG diploma in Data Science.
- As per the recommendations from the industry experts, it will be appropriate to have mathematical application oriented courses in the post graduate diploma programmes.
- After discussions, the members accepted the above justification and unanimously resolved to replace the mathematical courses with equivalent mathematical application courses.
- The suggested courses recommended by the board are
 - Data Mining Tools
 - Data Analytics using Python
