FEEDBACK ANALYSIS REPORT

The Board of Studies for both undergraduate (UG) and postgraduate (PG) departments were convened to discuss and finalize the structure and content of the second-year UG and PG curriculum. The syllabus revision took into account based on the suggestions collected from various stakeholders such as students, alumni, academic peers, employers, and faculty members to cater the needs of the students.

- The content of language papers was approved by the respective language boards.
- Skill subjects for the second year were finalized and approved.
- Major subject syllabi across departments were presented and finalized.
- Approval was granted for allied subjects offered across the programmes.

For certain arts disciplines such as B.Com., B.Com. (CA), B.B.A., and B.C.A., resolutions for the second-year syllabus were endorsed. Suggestions from stakeholders, as identified in the feedback analysis report, were incorporated into the respective courses.

- Approval was given for major subjects and allied subjects in these courses.

The resolutions from the PG board of studies in all departments were reviewed and passed. Analysis of feedback from students, alumni, faculty, academic peers, and employers informed further modifications to the PG curriculum. Special attention was given to prioritize job placement opportunities for PG students during the curriculum revision.
