FEEDBACK ANALYSIS REPORT

The feedback analysis made by the various Board of Studies for both undergraduate (UG) and postgraduate (PG) departments discussed in order to finalize the contents of final year UG curriculum. Based on the suggestions collected from various stakeholders such as students, alumni, academic peers, employers, and faculty members, the members of the board meticulously revised the curriculum to suit the needs of the students.

- The contents of major courses of all programmes were presented and finalized.
- Subject skill papers were finalized and approved.
- The syllabus for all the non-major subjects were approved and passed.

Analysis of feedback from students, alumni, faculty, academic peers, and employers informed further modifications to the PG curriculum. The resolutions from the PG board of studies in all departments were reviewed and passed. The corrections and suggestions suggested were to be incorporated.
