ACTION TAKEN REPORT- FEEDBACK REPORT OF STAKEHOLDERS- 2020-2021

This report delineates the measures undertaken in response to invaluable input received from stakeholders regarding the curriculum of the PG Diploma in Logistics Management. Feedback, gathered through meetings and direct communication, showcases the diverse perspectives of stakeholders deeply engaged in the curriculum development process.

The stakeholders' meticulously collected feedback emphasized the necessity to eradicate course content repetition and highlighted the importance of integrating job-specific courses in relevant areas. Recognizing the validity of these concerns, the department has taken decisive steps.

Aligned with stakeholders' aspirations, the department conducted a comprehensive review of the curriculum, resulting in a syllabus revision. Fresh job-specific subjects have been introduced to bridge identified gaps, ensuring our curriculum aligns with the dynamic requirements of the professional landscape within Logistics Management.
