ACTION TAKEN REPORT- FEEDBACK REPORT OF STAKEHOLDERS- 2020-2021

This report delineates the actions taken in response to invaluable input received from stakeholders concerning the curriculum of the PG Diploma in Import and Export Management. Feedback, garnered through meetings and direct interactions, portrays diverse perspectives from stakeholders actively engaged in shaping the curriculum.

The stakeholders' meticulously gathered feedback emphasized the necessity to eliminate course content repetition and highlighted the importance of integrating job-specific courses in relevant areas. Acknowledging the validity of these concerns, the department has taken decisive steps.

In alignment with stakeholders' aspirations, the department conducted a comprehensive review of the curriculum, culminating in a revision of the syllabus. New job-oriented subjects have been introduced to address identified gaps, ensuring our curriculum aligns with the dynamic requirements of the professional landscape.
