Feedback analysis and Action taken Report

Feedback analysis

The department has observed some the important points through feedback analysis. The students are more comfortable in their workplace and they expressed that whatever they gained in the department and from the college it has been helping them to redefining the planning of their career. They positively express on improvement of communication skills and the business analysis and other business related activities.

Action Taken

The department has brought some changes on the department activities, each and every day and every student should speak about business concept which is published on the daily newspapers and magazines. Apart from these both the faculty and students have chances to share their new ideas and new business related activities during the good morning / good afternoon talk; the faculties are facilitating the students if they need any application oriented information on the particular course.
