

Incentives for paper publications

The incentives are linked to the publication of research papers in journals that are recognized and indexed in prestigious databases such as Scopus, Web of Science, and the UGC-CARE list. These databases are known for including reputable and high-impact journals. The amount of incentives has increased over the years, indicating a commitment to recognizing and rewarding research excellence.

- In 2018, the incentives were 1.99 lakhs INR.
- In 2019, the incentives increased to 3.59 lakhs INR.
- In 2020, there was a further increase to 3.95 lakhs INR.
- In 2021, the incentives remained high at 3.87 lakhs INR.
- In 2022, there was a slight increase to 4.05 lakhs INR.
