NSS COVID-19 WARRIORS 2020-2021

NSS Programme Officers and NSS Volunteers (19 Volunteers) of Sacred Heart College, Tirupattur, volunteered themselves to be COVID-19 WARRIORS in association with Tirupattur District Police in various duties related to prevention and containment of COVID – 19 and enforcement of lockdown in Tirupattur District for 48 days (02.05.2020 to 18.06.2020).

The NSS Volunteers worked along with Tirupattur District Police in ensuring social distancing norms in public places like markets, bazzars, shops, banks, check posts, ration shops, etc. They also helped the Police Personnel in strictly enforcing the rule of wearing masks in public places during the lockdown period. The NSS Volunteers assisted in Taluk Police Station in

In a special function organized at GDP Hall in Tirupattur Collector Office , on 16th July 2020, Thiru. P. Sivan Arul I.A.S, Collector, Tirupattur District and Thiru. P. Vijayakumar I.P.S, SP, Tirupattur District, appreciated the gallant effort by the NSS Volunteers in serving the society during difficult times of COVID-19 pandemic. They distributed certificates and awards to the NSS Volunteers and Programme Officers. Working as COVID-19 WARRIORS, helped the NSS Volunteers to understand the Public and Police Personnel. They also developed a taste for leading from front during the crisis period of this pandemic.

“Road Safety”-Awareness Bike Rally (13.02.2021)

In view of observing “Road Safety Month” the National Service Scheme (NSS) of Sacred Heart College, Tirupattur in association with Rathnas Lions Club of Tirupattur organized a bike rally from Sacred Heart College to housing board signal, on 13th February 2021. The rally was flagged off jointly at 10.15am by Rev. Dr. John Alexander, Rector and Secretary SHC, Rev. Dr. D. Maria Antony Raj, Principal SHC, Mr. Thangavel DSP, Tirupattur District and Rathnas Lions Club members Ln. Bhuvaneshwari and Ln. P. R. Dhevarajan from Sacred Heart College Entrance.

Wearing helmet and raising placards containing slogans (such as “wear helmet save lives”, “respect traffic rules”, “moderate speed always good” “high speed kills”) of road safety, around 100 bikers from NSS and Media forum moved from Sacred Heart College very slowly passing through Tirupattur bus stand, Pudupettai road and reached housing board signal at 11.15am. The students from Bharath Marshal Art Academy performed street play, mime, silabattam during the rally. Tirupattur town police escorted the rally and regulated the traffic.

The rally made a great impact on the general public of Tirupattur town, instilling awareness on road safety measures such as wearing helmet, following traffic rules, avoiding use of mobile on ride, avoiding drunken drive etc., The volunteers felt proud and happy to be part of this noble social cause of saving lives and minimizing accidents on roads.

The event was systematically coordinated by the NSS Programme Officers Dr. M. Antony Arockiasamy, Dr. U. Ramesh, Dr. B. Seenivasan, Media Forum President Dr. Royal Edward Willams and Ln. Kishore.

Apart from these important activities, NSS has conducted an orientation meeting online on 20.08.2020; an awareness lecture on NEP 2020 by Dr. K. Parthibaraja was organized on 15.09.2020. A special debate on the theme "Who contributed more to the society during pandemic? Ladies of Gents?" was organized by Dr. G. Mohan Gandhi online on 28.11.2020. The NSS volunteers did a marvelous job of clearing the ground in front of MSW building in preparation for theme park on 3rd March 2021. An awareness programme on civil service Exams was held online by Mr. Tamil Eyialan on 10.03.2021. Finally, NSS Special Camp certificates were distributed by Rev. Dr. John Alexander, Rector and Secretary and Rev. Dr. Praveen Peter in a special function held at Mother Teresa Hall on 15.03.2021.

Over 50 volunteers, faculties and police personnel actively participated in this noble campaign. The campaign reached out to a sizable number of general public of Tirupattur town in generating awareness about road safety measures. The programme was meticulously planned and coordinated by NSS Programme Officers Dr. M. Antony Arockiasamy, Dr. G. Mohan Gandhi, Dr. U. Ramesh and YRC President, Dr. R. Kurinji Malar. The whole programme was conducted strictly adhering to the SOP prescribed by the Tamilnadu Government.

On 05/03/2022 the NSS Volunteers, heeding to the need of the NGO sponsored Bhoomithaai Old Age Home, Achamangalam, Tirupattur, reached out in helping the Bhoomithaai NGO by moving 300 solid cement blocks and two loads of sand to the second floor for construction. This noble cause in extending support to this newly constructed home was possible only because of the volunteers will power and physical stamina. It was coordinated by Programme Officers Dr. M. Antony Arockiasamy Dr. U. Ramesh. It was well appreciated by Mr. Settu, Secretarty, Bhoomithaai Trust.
