Minutes of the Meeting

Ragging Curb Committee

Date: 24-06-2019

Time: 3.30 pm

Venue: Abdhul Kalam Hall

The Anti-Ragging Committee meeting started with a short prayer by the principal Rev. Dr. D. Maria Antony Raj. He thanked everyone for creating a ragging free atmosphere in the campus during the last academic year. To prevent Ragging among the students in the future, the following points were suggested by the members during the meeting:

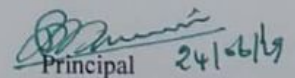

- A Special meeting can be organized especially for the senior students to make them to be aware about the ragging and their consequences.
- The securities and some of the staff members can be requested to have frequent rounds in the college campus and surroundings to monitor the students for a month at the beginning of the Academic year .
- The staff members especially the first year class teachers must watch the students closely.
- Visitors to the college campus should be monitored.
- One meeting may be organized especially with first year students to educate 'how to interact with the senior students.
