Varia

Conduct of Self-Study Courses

Rev.Dr.Praveen Peter SDB, the Controller of Examinations, mentioned that at present with regard to the self-study courses, the departments are internally setting the question papers, conduct the examinations, value the answer scripts and forward the credits to the controller of examination.

Rev.Dr.D.Maria Antony Raj SDB, the principal mentioned that the self-study courses are offered for advanced learners and like other courses, the students enrolled for self-study courses can also apply for the examination and pay the examination fee to the controller of examinations. This would confirm transparency in remunerating the faculty for the setting of question papers and evaluation for the self-study courses.

The controller of examination sought for a clarification on the handling of classes under self-study mode, and got clarified by the Chairman of the academic council that self-study courses doesn't require regular contact classes. Rev.Dr.D.Maria Antony Raj SDB, the Principal mentioned that establishing a Center for Certificate Courses is under consideration.

Change of Question Paper pattern for the January' 2022 Examinations

Rev.Dr.D.Maria Antony Raj SDB, the chairman presented to the board that due to the unprecedented situation caused due to the pandemic, the question paper pattern can be modified only for the upcoming January, 2022 examinations. He proposed the following changes:

Section – A, earlier had no choices, now it is proposed to include 2 or 3 choices.

Section – B, earlier had either or type of choices, which could be now converted to open type of choices.

Section – C can remain unchanged.

After discussion, the change in the question paper pattern for the January 2022 semester examination was approved by the members of the academic council.

Dr.L.Ravi suggested to ensure that a Faculty would chair only a single board (either UG or PG), and the chairman of the academic council responded that, appointing a single chairman for both UG and PG boards is an ad-hoc arrangement for the Fledgling departments, and mentioned that such appointments will be gradually withdrawn as the departments grow.

Remarks by the External Members

Dr.F.Sagayaraj Francis queried if there is any passing minimum in the internal component, and Rev.Dr.D.Maria Antony Raj SDB, chairman of the academic council responded that there is no passing minimum for internal component. He also wanted to know if the value added courses are considered for the calculation of CGPA, and Rev.Dr.D.Maria Antony Raj SDB, chairman of the academic council replied that they are not included for the CGPA calculation.

He highly appreciated the plan by the management to initiate a centre for certificate courses. He suggested that guidelines should be evolved to map the grades provided by MOOC agencies to the credits allotted by the college. The chairman of the academic council replied that the guidelines would be drafted at the earliest.

Dr.Bhusan D.Sudhakar also acknowledged the proposal to start the centre for certificate courses. He also suggested including more weightage for multiple choice question based evaluation, and added that the standard of the MCQs should be at par with questions set by national level testing agencies such as NET.

He enquired about the application of MOODLE in teaching and learning. Rev.Dr.D.Maria Antony Raj SDB, the chairman of the academic council explained that the college has adopted MOODLE as its official Learning Management System (LMS). The department of computer science started the usage of MOODLE in the year 2001, and later it was extended to all the departments from 2017 onwards. The college had provided hands-on training to the faculty from AIACHI, DBHEI and affiliated colleges of Thiruvalluvar University.

Dr.Charles Lasarado SJ appreciated the efforts of the college in the usage of MOODLE in teaching and learning. He further added that there is a clause in the National Educational Policy to offer 40% of a course content in off campus mode, which can make the college to reach out to more audience, and suggested that the college can implement this in the future.

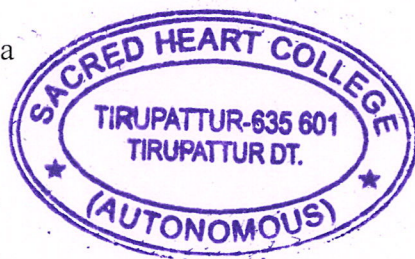

He also encouraged the faculty to offer online materials. Rev.Dr.D.Maria Antony Raj SDB, the chairman complemented that a new media centre has been inaugurated in the campus, which is equipped with state of the art facilities to prepare online materials. He also informed that the faculty would be directed to make use of this media centre and publish online materials.

Vote of Thanks

Rev.Dr.D.Maria Antony Raj SDB, the Principal and the chairman of the academic council acknowledged the genuine and active participation of all the members of the academic council. He thanked all the members for their suggestions to improve the academic quality of the college.
